- AIDEN SAWYER

- "Did you see this yet?" Referer back to a previous email, gift, deal, etc.
- "Tips for getting [benefit/result]" Give specific tips for achieving a result that your users want.
- "A Reader just asked me this...." Answer a question from your blog, a customer email, or from somewhere else (Someone just asked this...")
- "I need your help..." Ask Subscribers a question that gets them thinking and helps you serve them.
- "The Top 5 Lies About [desired outcome]" Create a series of emails with myths lies misconceptions, etc.
- "What you Need to Know About [Interest/Desired Outcome]" Gives scarcity and that there are getting new, hot information that they do not already have.
- "7 Weird Ways to do...." Any kind of weird, strange or bizarre fact about ideas relating to your own market.
- "Enter and Win" This has a high open rate but the word "win" may make it risky for deliverability filtering.
- "Are you interested in..." Ask if they 're interested in getting a specific result, then delivers the answer.
- "Join me today to learn.."
